

Anambra vigilance commander, 2 others nabbed over keke rider's murder

From Aloysius Attah,
Onitsha

POLICE operatives from Ogidi Division, Anambra State, have arrested the Ojoto community vigilance commander and two others, over the kidnap and murder of a tricycle operator, Christian Oluchukwu Onah.

Onah, a 25-year-old tricycle rider from Ovoko community, Igbo-Eze South LGA, Enugu State, but residing in Oba, Idemili South LGA, Anambra State, was declared missing on May 28, 2023, when he failed to return after going out for the day's business of tricycle riding transportation.

His neighbour in Oba had raised the alarm over his whereabouts and, subsequently, reported to the police. The owner of the tricycle, the missing Christian, rides under hire purchase agreement engaged the services of a security tracker that eventually yielded positive fruits, leading to the arrest of a man in possession of the missing tricycle used by Christian.

On further interrogation, the man confessed to buying the keke from Ojoto community vigilance operatives. When the police arrested the vigilante who sold the keke to him, he, also, subsequently, mentioned the vigilante commander as the one who masterminded the abduction.

(Continued on www.sunnewsonline.com)