A suspected prostitute has allegedly stabbed her male customer to death over money issues in Lagos.

The suspect has been arrested and accused of killing her customer at Jakande, Lekki area of the state.

The suspect, Joy Kelvin, was said to have been contracted for a night sex romp by Okafor, 48.

Lagos State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), SP Benjamin Hundeyin in a statement, said, "on October 7, at about 7:20pm, a friend of the deceased came to complaint at Ilasan Police Division about the incident.

"The deceased's friend said that on the same date, at about 5:32am, he got a phone call from one of his friends, that one Okafor, who was also his friend, was stabbed in his house at Jakande housing Estate, Lekki, by Joy Kelvin, a prostitute.

"The deceased was said to have brought the prostitute to the house before disagreement ensued between them and she allegedly stabbed him in the process.
