

Suspected herders kill mother, son, 2 others in Benue

From Scholastica Hlr, Makurdi

GUNMEN, suspected to be armed herdsman militia, have killed a woman, her son and two others in two communities of Agatu Local Government, Benue State.

Our correspondent gathered that the incident happened yesterday morning at Egwuma and Ogbai communities in the LG.

As at the time of filing this report, locals told newsmen that two other persons were still missing and have not been seen.

A local from Egwuma, Inalegwu told newsmen on phone that the suspected armed herders stormed the two communities and attacked the villagers without provocation.

Inalegwu said, "Some herdsman attacked Egwuma and Ogbai communities today, they killed a woman and his son, who were working on their farm and also killed two others at the neighbouring Ogbai community."

•Continued on www.thesun.ng