

Boko Haram kills 2 Immigration officers, burns residence

6th September 2025

By Christopher Oji

Boko Haram terrorists in the early hours of yesterday, attacked Immigration officers' residence, killing twom – Buture M Ibrahim, Head of Border Control and Otojah, Head of JTF, at Monguno, Yobe State.

Two other officers who were injured are currently receiving treatment at Monguno General Hospital. A wireless message sent by SC Abatcha Maidugu, DO Monguno, to the authorities, and made available to Saturday Sun reads: "On September 5, 2025, at about 01:06 hours, a confirmed report revealed that some suspected elements of BHT attacked Immigration officers. The insurgents have burnt down the entire resistance to ashes.” The terrorists also burnt down some vehicles in the premises.

Related News

- NANS condemns CNG price hike, seeks consultation
- JUST IN: FCT resident doctors commence 7-day warning strike
- 2027: I won't align with Tinubu to become Lagos Governor, says Rhodes-Vivour

An Immigration officer, who spoke on condition of anonymity, said the gruesome murder of the two officers was a heavy blow to the agency.

He described the deceased officers as dedicated staff who had put many years of selfless service in the organisation.