

I2 dead, 8 injured in Imo auto crash

10th September 2025

Accident

From Stanley Uzoaru, Owerri

At least twelve people died in a motor accident along Onitsha/Owerri road, Imo State, yesterday.

Imo State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) Henry Okoye, revealed that a truck, with registration number: T 16716 LA, bearing the inscription NUPENG, was driving against traffic and collided with a commuter bus, with number plate: ABB 79 BX, transporting members of Jehovah's Witness Church, from Anambra State to Agwa village in Imo state.

Okoye, however, added that the deceased, which include: eight adults and four children, have been evacuated and deposited at Ogbaku Mortuary, while the injured persons are receiving treatment at

Divine Hospital ,Awo-Omamma.

---

Related News

- FCTA halts unauthorized construction, removes over 30 early-stage buildings at River Park Estate
- Police arrest self-proclaimed 'Obi of Lagos', foil planned installation ceremony
- Owo church attack: Court dismisses suspected terrorists' bail plea, fixes date for trial

Meanwhile, Commissioner of police, Aboki Danjuma, has expressed his condolences to the bereaved families and wished the injured persons quick recovery.

He Warned motorists against reckless practices, such as driving against traffic, excessive speeding, and negligence.

He urged road users to prioritize safety, obey traffic regulations and drive responsibly.