

Table 11.1 Extra-judicial killings of the Nigerian military in Northeast

S/N	Date	Locations	Casualties	Remarks
1	9 July 2011	Kaleri area of Maiduguri	8 persons abducted from their homes and shot dead	In retaliation for the killing of their colleagues in a car explosion, allegedly committed by the Boko Haram. The JTF condoned off the area, abducting and killing male residents. Many houses were also burnt.
2	27 December 2011	Kawar Maila area of Maiduguri	9 persons killed	JTF operatives arrested boys on suspicion of Boko Haram membership. The boys were found to have been executed the next day and their corpses were left at the University of Maiduguri General Hospital. The JTF claimed they were killed in gun battle.
3	25 April 2012	Kawar Maila	One killed and four houses burnt	The incident was provoked by an explosion allegedly planted by Boko Haram.
4	1 May 2012	Kawar Maila	Two killed and several houses burnt	Attacked provoked by an explosion allegedly planted by Boko Haram.
5	22 May 2012	Lawan Bukar	One killed, 13 shops and five houses burnt	Attacked provoked by an explosion allegedly planted by Boko Haram.
6	8 October 2012	Gwange area of Maiduguri	Over 50 houses and 50 vehicles burnt, while nearly 70 persons (both civilians and suspected terrorist killed)	JTF operatives stormed the Gwange area, shooting indiscriminately at residents and motorists, and burning vehicles and houses. This was done in retaliation for the killing of their colleagues when an IED, believed to have been planted by Boko Haram hit the JTF, killing the platoon commander and injuring other members of the patrol.
7	17 October 2012	Gamboru, Borno state	About 6 youths killed	JTF operatives clamped down on residents, killing and molesting them over the death of their colleagues who were killed when an IED allegedly planted by Boko Haram exploded a patrol van and killed its commander.

(continued)