Rapid Response patrol vehicle attacked by armed robbers killing two policemen

By Cyriacus Izuekwe & Oluwole Adebeye

Armed robbers went on the rampage this afternoon in Lagos and killed several people including two policemen inside their patrol vehicle.

According to an eyewitness who gave his name as Tayo Adeyeri, the robbers, who drove in two SUVs, a Toyota Prado and Armada, stormed several parts of Lagos, including a bureau de change at Agege, Lagos, southwest Nigeria, where they shot some currency changers and carted away two bags containing local and foreign currencies running into millions.

Adeyeri said he saw four people who were shot dead and that the robbers also shot two currency changers who resisted their attack.

Those that were shot but survived were taken to Mayfair Hospital at Oke-Koto but they were rejected and were taken to Motolani Medical Centre at Alfa Nla, Oke-Koto, Agege for treatment.

Our reporter was not allowed into the hospital to speak with the victims.

A stray bullet shot by the robbers also hit a six-year old girl in the eye and her grandmother on the forehead while they were watching TV in their home at 15, Alfa-Nla, Agege.

A stray bullet also hit a parked Volvo ambulance with registration number HL 355 AAA belonging to Motolani Medical Centre, and shattered the back windshield.

The robbers numbering eight, including two women who were driving the SUVs, started their operation at about 10:35 a.m. from Ifako-Gbagada, Oshodi, Mile 2 and Agege.

P.M.NEWS gathered that while they were escaping in their SUV, a team of Rapid Response Squad, RRS, chased them with their patrol vehicle with registration number 5251.

The police team caught up with the robbers at Guinness bus stop along Oba Akran Avenue in Ikeja and the robbers opened fire on the cops.

In the ensuing gun duel, the police patrol team driver and another policeman were killed on the spot and the robbers escaped with their loot.

When P.M.NEWS got to the scene a few minutes after the gun battle, the two dead policemen soaked in their blood were still lying in their Toyota patrol vehicle marked 525 on both sides of the vehicle.

The identities of the two policemen could not be ascertained as the RRS Commander, CSP Kayode Odumosu, declined to pick his call when our reporters contactd him on pnoe this afternoon.

Two LASTMA officials had earlier been shot at Oshodi and a police officer was also shot at Ifako Gbagada, according to eyewitnesses.

The state Police Command spokesperson, Ngozi Braide, also did not speak on the incident when our reporter put a call across to her this afternoon.

There has been no official reaction at the time of this report.

GRACE IS GIVING TO THE WEAK BUT NIGERIA WHERE ARE WE?

Submitted by Pastor Commander Samyoung Onwuzulike (not verified) on September 10, 2012 - 14:55.

I am not against Advanced Technology, am in USA working in security system knowing the importance of Advanced Security Techn which will take Nigeria over 50 years to reach. Angels were given to us as gift to the weak, but in Nigeria we lack man made Advanced Security Techn, also lack Grace assistance of Angelic Security. All die na die. You died of Boko Haram, Army Robbers, Accident, Air Crash, Killer Diseases, Natural Disasters, Poision, Witch craft, Curses and Poverty all are death. I have tested death and saw Christ power in help. Do you think Christ did not solved our problems of pr-matured death for us because he died pre maturly. The answer to solve our problem of death is in our hand. Mr Death is angry with Men because He is the wisdom of God and Christ gives him grace but men rejected his grace which turned him into war with men. Christ made peace for us with death on his resurrection.

A ROAD TO 2015 A THORNY ROAD TO FIBROIDS!

Submitted by Sanusi A. Yar'adua (not verified) on September 10, 2012 - 12:08.

When TRIBUNE newspaper carried its million naira report about GEJ's unthorny path to Aso Rock again by 2015, I became highly suspicious of Nigeria's journalism. It said that it carried out 'investigations', but how, when and where the whole reports indicated flimsy reasons and facts if there were any to be called as such. The issue of so person and so person are supporting the candidature of so person in Nigeria that does'nt hold water, virtually it is myopic. All final term Governors are vieying for presidency unless their party is not supporting that. PDP is vandalised by these governors. Therefore, just assume that PDP will not have any candidate except tribal or sectional candidate.

what if the hospital doesn't

Submitted by Anonymous (not verified) on September 10, 2012 - 12:07.

what if the hospital doesn't have the expertise to handle such cases? Hospitals are also supposed to know their limitations. Not all hospitals can handle severe trauma cases. It would be criminal to accept a case you cannot handle....just saying.

sad.. Police men, all they know is haunt after boys, extorting money from them after labelling them yahoo boys.. Look at where they said these robbers where coming from, not a single radio broadcast was sent telling police men with more fire power to mount road blocks.. We will always have issues like this.. With the way things are going.. Its imminent..

Perhaps no specialist on duty. Admitting the wounded would just be tantamount to killing them as well.

What about the presidential fleet?

Submitted by Kay Soyemi (Esq.) (not verified) on September 10, 2012 - 10:31.

Sad to note that the Presidential fleet that is devoted to the services of ONE office has more aircraft available to it compared to about 6 helicopters to protect circa 150 million Nigerians from crime!

The problem of Nigeria lies beyond corruption. Mumuism is the bigger problem.

It was not all gloomy day that sunday. A RRS detachment caught with a group of Robbers in an SUV around Egbeda area after a hot pursuit that same Sunday morning. I can't tell if they were part of the gang we read about in this report. While tryn to escape, the gang ran into several cars and destroyed a car at Seliat bus stop. Some of us on our way to church had to scamper for our dear lives Kudos to the policemen for apprehending them.

still shocking

Submitted by Anonymous (not verified) on September 10, 2012 - 07:12.

Did you know that Lagos State Law was not working at all, Our Legislative & Executive only pass the law but the law were not execute. We have the law in Lagos that say all emergency must be attend to in any hospital they were taken. That was not the story to Mayfair Hospital in Oke-koto, Agege, the hospital reject over 15 patients that were hit by stray bullets yesterday. Where is Lagos Medical Association or Doctors Guide Association or Lagos State Task force because by now they suppose to have shut down the hospital for not attending to them.

Under-funded police department

Submitted by Ezekiel (not verified) on September 10, 2012 - 07:02.

Nobody cares enough about the people in Nigeria. A six year old shot in the eye, a grandmother shot in the head...police do not even have a helicopter response unit, no effective co-ordination in their communication with each other, no hidden security cameras, polices officers so underpaid that they are forced to collect "ROGER" or loan their guns to criminals, no finger-printing at crime scenes, no forensics - hasn't the Nigerian government ever watched an episode of CSI - even on youtube? In short, Nigeria is a FAILED STATE. The presidency and high officials are not concerned enough.

Sad Robbery

Submitted by Anonymous (not verified) on September 10, 2012 - 04:01.

2 Women involved in such bloody robbery
This is so sad how the policemen and civilians lost their lives. But I think that the police should be tactful enough not exchange fire in a busy area for such will minimize crossfire casualties. May God encourage bereaved families.

DO YOU THINK NIGERIA PROBLEMS HAVE NO ANSWER?

Submitted by Pastor Commander Samyoung Onwuzulike (not verified) on September 10, 2012 - 02:13.

If Nigeria problems have no answer why are we talking of Jesus Christ as Our Lord? Find the true channel of Christ Power and raised dead Nigeria from death. Apostle Paul says, if there is no resurrection after death let us eat and drink today for tomorrow we die. Every evil of man comes from his heart, the 1st Coming of Jesus Christ gave us Holy Ghost of the flesh, but Last Salvation for Christ Commanders' Angels comes with Salvation of the Spirit, Mind and Soul it gives us New Holy Ghost in fullness of Christ as Mother Grace which arrested all heart and thought of Men with Ground Zero. He made them Ground Zero which are angels without will power of their own. The Motivation Power of Man is will power and head knowledge. Head knowledge Ndigbo called (Agwu Isi)

THE BEST COMMENT SO FAR!

Submitted by nagodi (not verified) on September 10, 2012 - 01:57.

"Why would Nigerian Police be wasting its men when the real robbers are sitting confidently within the fortress of Aso Rock and the National assembly. These police people should stop chasing shadows and be real for once. May the soul of the unfornate 'cannon fodders' rest in peace."

THIS IS INDEED THE BEST COMMENT SO FAR. NIGERIANS ARE FUNNY PEOPLE. WHEN THEY WANT CREDIBLE, PURPOSEFUL AND VISIONARY LEADERS, THEY VOTE FOR THIEVES AND FORGERS, CONFESSED RITUALISTS AND CONMEN AND THEN SIT BACK TO ENJOY "FRESH AIR" AND WATCH TRANSFORMATION!

WRONG!!! OUR STREETS WILL BE OVERTAKEN BY ARMED ROBBERS SIMPLY BECAUSE WE FILL OUR GOVT HOUSES WITH FORGERS, CONMEN AND THIEVES.

Tinubu and Fashola are the cause of this, the reason, tinubu steals, Fashola is a billionaire, what business do they do? I am not supporting stealing in any form. You see tinubu smiling after stealing from them. It is a pity!
Now to oga commissioner, You need to be fired because of your incompetence. A child in the U.S holding a gun is a threat. The police will call for backup. Two zombies are running after sophisticated robbers. That was a suicidal. God save us from fools. If the police should shoot tinubu first , may be they will grow wiser.

You decide

Submitted by ThirdSense (not verified) on September 10, 2012 - 01:30.

The robbers' two SUVs, a Toyota Prado and Armada Vs. police's one old pick-up. It's no rocket science predicting the outcome of such encounter.

Kudos to those police, whom despite their inadequately equipped security apparatus went after the robbers. May the souls of those that died rest in peace.

The big time robbers (president, vice-president, governors, ministers, senators and their co) get the best form of security available in the country, but the masses are left to be protected by operationally deficient police.

Has anyone the idea of the ratio of police to the masses? I am should it won't be less than 1:5,000. That is 1 police for 5,000 Nigerians.

May God save us Nigeria.

foolishness

Submitted by Anonymous (not verified) on September 10, 2012 - 00:34.

Our main problem in Nigeria is nobody really takes the time
To truly try and find the Answer, a solution
All we do is look for a shortcut, look for Someone, something to blame. People we've been Dying before the existence of Boko Haram. What We've done about it. But suddenly the cult came
And we blame everything on them. Even when we trip
In the bathroom *we blame it on Boko Haram.
Lolz.. Am not sorry to say this "We are Foolish
, We've been foolish and we are still foolish"
Unless we start looking into our real problem
And solutions to it "We will remain FOOLISH"

Bloody Lagos : robbers on rampage

Submitted by john Woma (not verified) on September 10, 2012 - 00:09.

This is not good, how is it possible for the robbers kill two policemen in hut pursuit just like that. Wht can of training do they give our policemen. I expect that since they are in pursuit of the robbers, they should have called for back up. And back up should come from every angle in overwhelming numbers; even with helicopter support. This is how its done in modern societies.

It is bad to read that robbers kill cops and get away with it. It should be discourage by desicive punitive measures and strategy from the policy. What a waste of lives, bsolutely unnecessary. May their souls rest in peace.

Thanks
John woma

MY HEART GOES FOR THE POLICEMEN

Submitted by Awake (not verified) on September 9, 2012 - 23:47.

We had all been blaming our police for ineptitude and cowardice for a long time but this is a situation where a team of brave but ill-equipped policemen went after dare devil gun totting bandits and lost their lives in a very painful manner. Who would now mourn them but their own children. Their children would now drop out of schools while their wives might become everybody's dogs. This is very painful. I am not a police man but we can now all witness the destination where corruption has deposited us. Cry beloved people!

In as much as the lawmakers and the executives keep stealing our common wealth meant for the general welfare of nigerians, this kind of evil acts will continue to torment the land. The best way to fight crime is to provide well paid jobs for the citizens of this nation. Many people are jobless and no social security plan in place for anyone. It is a pity that a country like nigeria with all her natural and human wealth can be in this mess. The suffering will continue until the masses rise up to their responsibilities by holding these so called leaders accountable. First we must force the government to stamp out corruption in our land otherwise, this country is doomed forever!!!!!!
