Tragedy: Poly student, one other drown in hotel pool

From AKEEB ALARAPE, Osogbo

Thursday, October 14, 2010

Police detectives have arrested the Manager, of Calvary Hotel, Iree, in Boripe Local Government Area of Osun State over Monday's mysterious deaths of two persons in the hotel's swimming pool. Also arrested with the manager were a lady and two other men, who were said to have gone to the hotel in company with the two dead persons to relax on the fateful day.

The two deceased persons, Sulaiman Abiodun, a Higher National Diploma (HND) student of the Osun State Polytechnic, Iree, and another, simply identified as Afeez were said to have drowned in the swimming pool of the hotel around 10.30p.m on the fateful day. Daily Sun gathered that the five young men, among whom was the younger brother to a serving Senator in the state, had gone to the hotel, situated along the polytechnic road to relax.

Tragedy, however, struck around 10 p.m when three of the fun-seeking youths decided to swim in the hotel pool. Two of them, who were believed to have become drunk got
