Gunmen kill PDP stalwart in Delta

From Our reporter

Sunday, January 02, 2011

The gale of bloodletting blowing across the country hit Ughelli, Delta State when Mr Paul Atie, a former Transition Committee Chairman of Patani Local Government, was shot dead by unknown gunmen.

News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) reports that Atie is a Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) stalwart and a frontline crusader against the fourth term aspirations of some legislators from Patani, Bomadi and Burutu areas of the state.

The slain politician was also the publicity secretary of Guanah 2011 Campaign Organisation, the team of Mr Raymos Guanah.

An eyewitness told NAN that four gunmen trailed the deceased to a filling station where they blocked his car and ordered him to enter theirs.

The account said the politician attempted to resist and pleaded with his assailants to go with his car, a Toyota Avensis, and leave him.

The witness added that the suggestion angered the gunmen, who allegedly 0 shot him
