One Killed, Houses Burnt in Plateau

At least one person has been killed and eight houses burnt early yesterday in Lamba-Gembar village in Wase Local Government Area of Plateau State. A villager, Abubakar Musa, told THISDAY on phone that "Our attackers were Tarok and they came around 4:a.m. shooting and setting our homes on fire. Some of our hunters were able to chase them away before the soldiers arrived, but they killed one, Mallam Ishak Mohammed Saleh, who worked with the local government education authority." The Media and Information Officer of the Special Task Force (STF), Captain Salisu Mustapha, confirmed the attack, but said "we don't have reports of any death, but one person is missing and about eight huts were set ablaze." The villagers, who are predominantly Bogomby tribe, are presently taking refuge in Lamba district headquarters for fear of further attacks.
