A 24-year-old man, Abel Edoja, has reportedly beaten a young girl, Miss Tina Oghi, to death the Delta Steel Housing Complex in Udu Local Government Area of Delta State. Edoja allegedly dealt several blows on Oghi during a quarrel which ensued between them on Sunday.

Sources said the suspect was known for breaking and entering into peoples' houses to steal. Trouble started when Oghi accused Edoja of damaging her window net with the intent to break into her apartment located at the Delta Steel Housing Complex, popularly known as Red Buildings.

The suspect, who did not take the accusation lightly, pummelled the girl to stupor. Sources said that as soon as Edoja saw that the girl had given up the ghost, he threw her remains into a fish pond behind their residential building.

The cat was, however, let out of the bag when passersby saw the suspect while dragging the girl's body to the fish pond behind their residence and dumped her remains into the pond. Edoja, who fled the area, was later arrested by the police in Warri and taken to the 'A' Division. Meanwhile, parents of the deceased, are calling for justice.
