

2 Policeman held for driver's death

Police in Niger State have arrested a policeman, who allegedly killed a driver and injured another on Tegin-Lagos Road.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Bala Elkana, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Minna that investigation into the incident had commenced.

He said: "The policeman in question has been arrested and detained as the Commissioner of Police, Zubairu Muazu, has ordered an in-depth investigation into the case.

"The policeman will be tried in police orderly room."

The PPRO promised that anyone found culpable would be prosecuted according to the law and urged residents to remain calm as investigation continued into the incident.
