

Five burnt in Enugu auto crash

March 2, 2017 Charles Onyekwere

At least five persons were said to have been burnt to death while many others sustained various degrees of injury in an auto crash on Enugu- Makurdi Expressway at Obolloafor in Udenu Local Government Area of Enugu State.

A commercial bus coming from Makurdi axis collided with a Mercedes Benz car with registration number SMK 605 CD coming from Enugu. The vehicles burst into flames. Five persons were burnt beyond recognition.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Ebere Amaraizu, said the prompt arrival of the police operatives of Obolloafor Division prevented other vehicles from getting involved in the accident as they promptly removed the wreckages.

She added that the policemen conveyed the injured to the hospital while they evacuated the dead to Prince Eze Mortuary, Obolloafor.
