

One killed, two injured in Ebonyi varsity cult war

---

April 18, 2017    Online Editor

Uchenna Inya

A final year student of the Ebonyi State University, Theophilus Onele has been killed in a cult war between two rival cult groups, Vikings and Buccaneer.

Another student is said to have been critically injured in the renewed cult clash in the university.

However, a new twist was added to the cult clash after a member of the Black Axe Confraternity reportedly shot a Vikings member, leaving him critically injured bringing a third group into the fray.