

About 20 people have been killed while several others were injured in Borno State by people suspected to be members of the terrorist group, Boko Haram. Some of the victims were killed when some suicide bombers attacked Dalori 2 Internal Displaced Persons (IDPs) Camp.

Others were killed during sporadic shootings on farmers by terrorists

Kaleri village in Konduga Local Government Area. Eight persons including the suicide bombers were, according to a source from the Dalori 2 IDP Camp, the attack started on Sunday night and lasted till Monday while the shootings took place at strategic farmlands around Kaleri and Alau Dam general area of Konduga.