

A few hours after the IDP attack, residents of Kaleri axis and Alau Dam general area of Konduga, which is located about 10 kilometres South-East of Maiduguri, said over 15 people mostly farmers were killed in an ambush while working on the farms by terrorists yesterday afternoon.

A resident, Mallam Abor Konduga, our correspondent on the telephone, said that some suspected members of Boko Haram armed with AK47 rifles attacked farmers in various farmlands and killed over 15 people while several others sustained gunshot wounds.

He said: "As we speak, we have lost three of our community people who went to their nearby farms, while we also learnt that more farmers in surrounding villages who were killed or injured are yet to be evacuated."
