

"In an attempt to escape arrest, she hurriedly detonated the IED strapped to her body, killing herself alone. The impact of the explosion destroyed a portion of the IDP Camp fence. "Similarly, in the early hours of today (yesterday), about 0400 hours, a male suicide bomber attempted to gain entry into the premises of University of Maiduguri. "On sighting the security personnel deployed to the university on duty, he hurriedly detonated his IED, killing himself alone near the BOT building.

"Both scenes were visited by police and EOD teams to sanitise and render the environs safe. Meanwhile, security has been beefed up at these general areas to continue to avert further suicide bomb attacks."
