

Again, four killed in Nasarawa attack

January 17, 2018 Cheke Emmanuel

At least four persons were killed in a renewed attack on Uhime and Angyo communities at Dooka in Doma Local Government Area of Nasarawa State by armed men suspected to be herdsmen.

A resident of the area, John Tyojembe, who escaped death by a whisker, told journalists in Lafia, the state capital, that herdsmen invaded the communities in the early hours of yesterday, shooting sporadically.

Tyojembe said that apart from those killed, the herdsmen destroyed many houses and foodstuffs. According to him, the communities have been deserted.

He said survivors, mostly women and children, fled to Kadarko and Doma as well as Benue State.

Tyojembe called on both the Federal Government and state government to end the persistent attacks on his people and provide lasting peace between farmers and herdsmen. The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Idirisu Kennedy, could not be reached for comment.
