At least one person has been allegedly killed, about four injured and two others arrested at Umuche village, Nkwelle- Ezunaka, Oyi Local Government Area of Anambra State over a family land dispute.

The land dispute, which has lingered for some months now according to sources, took an ugly dimension on Friday when brothers took to arms to settle the issue once and for all.

Our Correspondent learnt that the services of mercenaries were allegedly employed and in the ensuing fight, four people sustained injuries from gun shots and machete cuts.

When contacted, the Divisional Police Officer (DPO) in charge of 3-3 Police Station, Mrs. Jane Mbanefo who witnessed the incident confirmed that two persons were arrested with arms.

On the alleged death of one person, the DPO said investigation was still ongoing to know the true position of the crisis.
