A Kano Chief Magistrate's Court yesterday remanded a 16-year-old housewife, accused of killing her husband by poison, in children's remand home.

The defendant, who lives at Shittar village in Danbatta Local Government Area of Kano State, is facing a one-count charge of culpable homicide. The housewife, according to the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN), was accused of poisoning her husband, Auwalu Isah.

The Chief Magistrate, Hajiya Fatima Adamu, who ordered the remand, adjourned the matter till June 7 for mention.

The prosecutor, Inspector Aluta Mijinyawa, told the court that a man, Ibrahim Yahaya, of the same address reported the matter at Danbatta Police Division on April
