

Magistrate, son, two others die in Ekpoma auto crash

• Two killed, four injured in Ogun

the accident.

"We heard that the late magistrate went to visit his children at AAU when the incident occurred through a petrol tanker oil spillage, which claimed their lives.

"It was indeed very sad news to all members of staff and lawyers in our court," the source said.

Meanwhile, Insp. Zedekiah Orogbemi, the court's prosecutor who also confirmed the incident to NAN said that he was shocked when he got the news.

The 59 year-old magistrate, who was due for retirement next year, left behind his wife and two other children.

And in a related incident, the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Sango-Ota Unit, Ogun State on Saturday, said that two persons died while four others sustained various degrees of injuries in a multiple accident at Sango-Ota toll-gate.

Mr Adekunle Oguntinyinbo, Sango-Ota FRSC's Unit Commander, who confirmed the accident in an interview with News Agency (NAN) in Ota, said the accident happened at about 4.45 a.m.

Oguntinyinbo stated that a Mack Truck vehicle with registration number GGE 80 XJ that was travelling from Abeokuta to Lagos had brake failure due to speeding, and rammed into five other vehicles.

He listed other vehicles involved in the accident to include, Volkswagen bus (KTU 899 XR), Volkswagen

LT, (GGE 44 XL), Coaster Civilian (LSR 604 XD), Iveco Trailer (XB 190 MLF) and Mazda bus (KJA 667 XP).

He said that 15 people were involved in the accident that resulted in the death of two persons, while four others sustained various degrees of injuries.
