One person was killed while two others were critically injured when two groups of hunter clashed at Ganduje town in Dawakin Tofa Local Government Area of Kano State.

However, the state government has condemned the clash which occurred on Sunday.

The state Commissioner for Information, Youth and Culture, Malam Muhammad Garba, said in a statement that Governor Abdullahi Ganduje had directed security agencies to thoroughly investigate the matter with a view to bringing to book perpetrators.

Garba also dismissed attempt by some individuals to link the clash with the governor's visit to the town to attend a wedding.

He said: "While it is true that Governor Ganduje was in the town to attend a wedding Fatiha, the clash between the rival hunters erupted after the governor left the town."

The commissioner said government would not fold its arms and allow disgruntled elements to disturb the prevailing peaceful atmosphere in the state.

He also promised that government would continue to work towards protecting lives and property of the people.

Garba also admonished citizens to develop the spirit of tolerance, patience and obedience to constituted authority at all times.
