

① Gunmen kill 24-year-old health science student in Kogi

Yekini Jimoh | Lokoja

GUNMEN have killed a 24-year-old 100 Level student of the Department of Community Health, College of Health Sciences and Technology, Idah, Kogi State, Sule Moses.

It was gathered on Saturday that Moses was attacked and killed by the gunmen on Thursday night at a private hostel at the back of the college.

Provost of the college, Dr Nuhu Anyegwu, who confirmed the incident, described the attack as inconceivable and shocking.

Anyegwu, in a statement on Saturday, expressed regret over the death of the student, describing him as a promising young man who successfully gained admission into the institution.

He said the incident was immediately reported at Idah Police Station on the night that it happened and the policemen came that night to take the corpse to the mortuary.

According to Anyegwu, Moses had since been buried in his home town in Dekina Local Government Area of Kogi State which was attended by the students of the institution.

The provost, therefore, urged the police to do thorough investigation on the incident and bring the perpetrators of the dastardly act to justice.
