Armed men have kidnapped an officer of the Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC), his wife and child at Dafara, a rural community in Kuje Area Council of the Federal Capital Territory (FCT).

The gunmen also killed a local vigilante. The abduction came barely 78 hours after gunmen in military uniform abducted nine persons, among a 12-year-old child, at Pegi community in the same Kuje.

A resident of the community, Shedrack Musa, said the abductors stormed the community at 8.38p.m., on Wednesday through a bush path, took the NSCDC officer, his wife and one of his children.

He said: "A member of the vigilance group at the community, Williams, was shot dead by the abductors when some vigilantes attempted to stop the abduction.

"The gunmen opened fire on the door of the NSCDC officer's apartment and entered. They whisked him away alongside his wife and one of his children. They shot and destroyed the key of the officer's house before they could have access into his apartment. It was the sound of the gunshots that attracted the attention of the vigilantes as they tried to go after the gunmen. One of the kidnappers opened fire and killed the vigilante.”

The Chairman of Pegi Community Development Association (PECDA), Mr. Taiwo Aderibigbe, confirmed the incident.

He said: “You can imagine that after less than 78 hours, another NSCDC officer, his wife and one of his children were again abducted at Dafara. Abuja is under siege; that is just the truth of the matter. Some people are playing politics with our lives.”

The FCT Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Anjuguri Manza, said the command would soon issue a statement regarding the latest kidnap at Dafara.

Dafara community is just one kilometre from neighbouring Pegi community where nine people were kidnapped on Monday night.
