

Man dies, 9 injured on Lagos-Ibadan Expressway accident

...As 4 escape death in building collapse

THE Traffic Compliance and Enforcement Corps (TRACE) in Ogun State on Saturday said that a man died while nine other passengers sustained various degrees of injuries in an accident on the Lagos-Ibadan Expressway.

Also, four persons escaped death following the collapse of four uncompleted two-storey buildings at about 4:10 p.m. at Glover Court, Ikoyi, Lagos, on Friday.

The Director-General, Lagos State Emergency Management Agency (LASEMA), Dr. Olufemi Oke-Osanyintolu, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Lagos that all the four collapsed buildings were under construction.

Akinbiyi, the TRACE Spokesperson, told newsmen in Abeokuta that the accident involving a Mazda bus and a Mack tanker occurred at 10:15 am near Saapade Bridge after Ogere.

"The bus marked KRE-495 XA was coming from Ibadan while the tanker with registration number LND-868 XN was inbound Ibadan from Lagos.

"The axis is a diversion zone, with inbound and outbound traffic sharing the outbound traffic together due to the ongoing road reconstruction and rehabilitation by Reynold Construction Company (RCC)

"The bus driver didn't calculate well before overtaking the vehicle in its front which resulted in a head-on collision with the tanker, which was on its rightful lane," he said.

Akinbiyi explained that five male adults and four female adults sustained injuries while one male adult died in the accident.

The TRACE spokesman said that the injured victims were taken to the State Hospital, Isara, while the deceased was deposited at FOS Mortuary, Ipara.

Akinbiyi advised motorists to always keep to the 50km speed limit at construction areas/axis to avoid mishaps.

POCACOV set to conduct one million man march in Enugu against cultism, other vices

POLICE campaign Against cultism and other vices (POCACOV) the initiative of the Inspector General of Police (IGP) Mohammed Abubakar ADAMU, aimed at savchampion, say no to cultism and other vices.

She said it is part of POCACOV campaign strategies aimed at deepening the deployment to states.