Homicide detectives attached to the Edo State Police Command, have arrested a man identified as Iroghama Moshudi, for the murder of 35-year-old Etinosa Nowaghama in Benin, the state capital.

Etinosa was reported to have been shot dead on November 8, 2019, at the residence of Mrs Happy Ikponmwosa.

Ikponmwonsa is the estranged wife of Iroghama. It was learnt that the police arrested Iroghama because he had earlier threatened to deal with the deceased.

Police sources said that Ikponmwonsa, a mother of four, had abandoned her husband for the deceased and refused all pleas to return to her matrimonial home.

It was further gathered that the threat on the deceased was reported to a traditional ruler in their area.

The Edo State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), a Deputy Superintendent of Police, Chidi Nwabuzor, while confirming the incident, said that operatives of the Ogida Police Division rushed the deceased to the hospital, but he was confirmed dead on arrival.
