Eight people were killed following a new wave of attacks on three communities in Kajuru Local Government Area of Kaduna State. The latest attacks occurred at Bakin-Kogi, Idanu and Makyali communities all in Kajuru Local Government Area.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Muhammad Jalige, was yet to respond to a message sent to him on the incident. But the President of the Adara Development Association (ADA), Mr. Awema Maisamari, said the attack on Makyali community occurred about 7a.m. yesterday, leading to the killing of seven people while the attacks on Bakin-Kogi and Idanu occurred on Tuesday, about 7p.m. Maisamari said the attackers were well armed, killed five people on the spot, while the corpses of two others were found in the bush. According to him, one person was killed in Idanu and two others seriously injured while in Bakin-Kogi, no life was lost as the villagers escaped, but their houses were set ablaze.

He said: "The situation report as at this morning (yesterday) is that the terrorists attacked three other settlements near Gonan-Rogo village, where 17 people were killed in the early hours of Tuesday. "In one of the communities called Bakin Kogi, the villagers escaped but several houses were burnt down. At the second village called Idanu, one person was killed and two others. The attacks in Idanu and Bakin Kogi took place on Tuesday about 7p.m.
