Rivers: Cultists Kill Four In Ogoni Community

📅 May 18, 2021 👤 Emmanuel Masha Port Harcourt 💬 Comments Off

Suspected cultists have killed four people during an attack on Kono Boue community in Khana Local Government Area of Rivers State. The killing has caused panic across the neighbouring communities.

The suspected cultists carried out the attack, according to the residents, even after their traditional ruler got wind of the attack and called a peace meeting to prevent it. The cultists, said to be armed with AK47 rifles, invaded the community after the peace meeting and targeted only males. The victims are Lekara Bira (32), Torka (40), and two others.

According to him, despite the attack, he has appealed to his people not to carry out any retaliatory attack as he looks for a way to stop future attacks on the community.

He said: "I have appealed to the people of my community to sheathe their swords and remain calm.

We will meet to find a way to resolve these incessant killings. "Two days ago, I had a meeting with all the communities in my kingdom, including the Nwegwere community and we resolved that there should be no attack from any community."
