

Zamfara Police arrest kids' vendor, 4-man-eater syndicate

Ibrahim Sidi Muh'd
GUSAU

The Zamfara State Police Command has announced the arrest of 4-man syndicate in connection with conspiracy, culpable homicide, cannibalism and dealing in human parts and a female seller of under-5 children in the state.

Parading the suspects at the Police Command Gusau yesterday), the State Commissioner of Police, CP Ayuba Elkana, said when the suspects were arrested, they were in possession of exhibits including intestine, oesophagus, two plunged eyes and a penis.

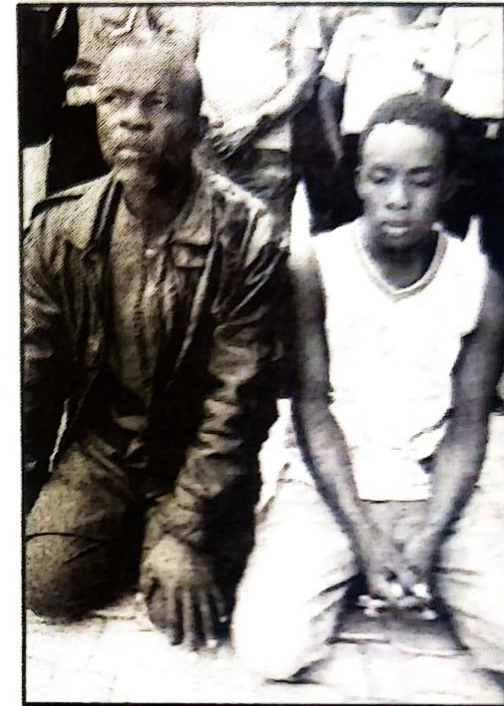

The female suspect identified as Aisha Ibrahim who hails from Niger Republic with her co-wife's two year old child identified as Aminu Ibrahim was arrested in Gusau while in search of a buyer for the child.

According to Mr. Elkana, the arrested suspects were Aminu Baba aged 57 years, Abdulshakur Mohammed aged 20 years, Abdullahi Buba aged 17 years, Ahmad Tukur aged 14 years, and are all under Police custody assisting for investigation after which they will be charged to court.

"On December 12, 2021 at about 1400hrs, one Ali Yakubu Aliyu was reported at Central Police Station Gusau that, his son Ahmad Yakubu, a 9-year-old boy was missing. On receiving the report, Police detectives swung into action and commenced a discreet investigation into the matter.

"Similarly, on December 28, 2021 at about 0930hrs, the Police detectives received an intelligence report with regards to the earlier report that on same date at about 0900hrs, a corpse of human being was found in an uncompleted building at Barakallahu area Gusau, with its two hands and legs tied with rag and head covered with polythene bag.

Some suspects