A vet to be identified lady believed to be in her 20s has been murdered by suspected ritualists in Ogwashi-Uku, Aniocha South Local Government Area of Delta State.

Daily Independent gathered that the corpse of the lady was discovered by the roadside, along Ubulu-unor road, where it was allegedly dumped by suspected ritualists.

It was learnt that the eyes and private organs of the deceased were missing.

Our source who requested anonymity revealed that the body of the deceased was discovered by some passers-by who raised the alarm that attracted the community vigilantes.

The source said, "Some people who passed along the road that early morning saw the corpse of the girl and raised the alarm and many people rushed down to see for themselves.

"When we got there, we saw the girl, wearing jean trousers and a white top. Her face was covered in blood, and her two eyes were no more. You can see her eye socket empty."

It was gathered that the vigilantes reached the police who evacuated and deposited the body of the deceased at the community mortuary.

When contacted, Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) of Delta State Police Command, DSP Bright Edafe, confirmed the killing of the young lady.

"The police were alerted to the scene of the incident by community youths who discovered the corpse of the lady with two eyes removed along the road.

"The DPO in Ogwashi-Uku who also confirmed the incident when contacted said that the corpse had been evacuated to the mortuary," he stated.
