

Police in Lagos arrest suspect over killing of okada park chairman

The Lagos State Police Command yesterday said it have arrested the alleged killer of Mr Alaba Williams, the Chairman of Ojodu-Berger Okada Riders Association (commercial motorcyclists).

The Command's Public Relations Officer, SP Benjamin Hundeyin, confirmed the arrest to the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Lagos.

"The alleged killer of Mr Alaba William, chairman of the Ojodu-Berger Okada Riders Association is in our custody.

"Investigation into the case has commenced immediately. Peace has returned to the place. Some patrol teams have been deployed to the area to ensure peace," he said. It was reported that the chairman was stabbed to death on Monday at Kosoko bus stop in Ojodu-Berger area of Lagos State over collection of levy.
