The Senior Special Assistant to Delta State Governor Ifeanyi Okowa on Political Matters, Mr Tony Otokhine yesterday died in a car accident.

His last outing was on Saturday last week in Benin when he accompanied the governor to the traditional wedding of the President of the Nigeria Bar Association (NBA), Olumide Akpata.

At the event, he met and commended Richard Mofe-Damijo for the new comedy skit he newly released with Mr Paul, a comedian.

The Media Assistant to the governor, Mr Ovie Success, said yesterday said: "Just like that. He is gone, This is so sad. This is painful."
