Gunmen said to be Fulani herdsmen reportedly attacked Tse-Tsegha community in the Logo Local Government Area of Benue State, killing a farmer and injuring many others.

The gangsters were also said to have carted away clothes and household items belonging to the locals as well as destroyed crops, using their cattle.

Scores of residents have reportedly fled to other communities following the attack.

A resident, Mr. Peter Mbanyi, whose younger brother was murdered, told New Telegraph that the terrorists invaded the community at about 8pm when it was raining heavily.

According to him, the attackers, who shot indiscriminately as they stormed the area, set ablaze three motorcycles belonging to some youths.

Mbanyi said: "The herdsmen invaded the area at about 8 pm where there was heavy rainfall and started shooting indiscriminately during which they killed the farmer.
