

② Delta: Police declare 2 wanted for terrorism as gunmen kill ASP

Dominic Adewole,
ASABA

A four man gang of gunmen have killed an Assistant Superintendent of Police (ASP), David Igbinovia, at Ime-Obi in Agbor, Ika South Local Government Area of Delta State.

This happened as the Police command in the state declared one Francis Odiakose, alias Module, and Christopher Odiakose, a.k.a Bif Fish, wanted for acts of terrorism.

This is coming a week after gunmen ambushed a police van at Okpanam Divisional Headquarters, a suburb of Asaba, the state capital and killed three policemen.

The Police Public Relations Officer, DSP Bright Edafe, in Asaba yesterday said the suspects, "have been declared wanted by the Nigeria Police on C.R.O form 5 issued by the Delta State Police Command."

taff of office to Ondo Oba-elect and Jacob Omokungbe, the Oloja of Akingboye and Chairman of Ode Irele Kingmakers has approached the court seeking a declaration that having nominated, presented and elected Dr. Bamidele Ekunsami as the Olofun-elect to the Ode Irele stool, the second defendant, Mr. Olusegun Ajimotokin who is the chairman of the local government cannot appoint the deposed regent to the Olofun stool.

Joined in the suit are the regent, Prince Adeniyi Olarewaju Ayeromora and the Chief Press Secretary to the Chairman of Irele Local Government, Victor Adediji. Barristers T Ogunde and E.N. Ajabo represented the defendants in court.

In the suit filed by the claimant's lawyer, Prince Bode Famakin, had Governor Akeredolu; the Special Adviser to the Governor on Chieftaincy Affairs; the Secretary, Irele local government, Chief Ajigbore Olagundoye, and Claudius Lebi as defendants.

He said: "A warrant of arrest has been issued by a Magistrate Court of Delta State Holden at Asaba Magisterial District against them for terrorism and other offences.

"They are wanted by the police for offenses of conspiracy, terrorism, cultism, attempted murder, grievous harm and conduct likely to cause breach of the peace. If seen, members of the public are enjoined to please arrest and hand over to the nearest police station or to the office of the Commissioner of Police Delta State."

He said handsome reward awaits any person(s) with useful information about their whereabouts.

The ASP, a 62-year-old officer, who hails from Ughada community in Edo State, was said to be washing his Toyota Camry car at his residence when his assailants forced him at gun point into a nearby bush path and shot him.