

1

Kogi: Police arrest man for killing, burying friend

...absconds with his car

Muhammad Bashir,
LOKOJA

The Kogi State Police Command has arrested a middle-aged man for killing his friend, Kehinde Ajayi and burying him in his own house in Lokoja, Kogi State.

The incident, it was learnt happened in Felele, Lokoja where the late Kehinde resided with his family.

The middle-aged man killed his friend, Kehinde Ajayi who recently bought a Toyota Sienna ash colour with registration number LSD 228

The suspect

HJ on Sunday July 24, 2022.

The source added that the killer who is into Air condition repair tricked the late Kehinde at about 10 am to come along with him to celebrate the new car he just bought.

The source disclosed further that the late Kehinde and others went to an unknown place, but were never seen again.

When the family of the late Kehinde reported the missing person to the Police, one of his friends was arrested and he gave useful information about what happened to Kehinde.

Two KWASU students found dead inside private hostel

Stephen Olufemi Oni,
ILORIN

Two 200 level students of the Kwara State University (KWASU), Malete, Tobiloba Daniel and Arewa Abayomi, have been found dead inside their hostel.

It was gathered that the deceased students were dating before their sad end.

"We suspect they are lovers and we became concerned when they were not seen during the ongoing examination in the university and also in their class for three days.

"It was when some of their friends got to their hostel outside the school that they found them both dead and naked. But we suspect it's a case of poison," according to a source.

The Director, University Relations at KWASU, Dr. Saeedat Aliyu, said she has not received official communication on the death of the two students.

However, the spokesman of the Kwara State Police Command, Ajayi Okasanmi, has confirmed the incident to newsmen in Ilorin, the state capital.

He said: "The information was that the two of them (students) were found dead inside their room and the police were alerted.