It was a sad weekend in Ogbomoso, Oyo State, as four persons reportedly died in a road accident, while two others were injured.

The Oyo State Road Transport Management Authority (OYRTMA) confirmed the death yesterday as having happened in Ayanyan area of Ogbomoso

North Local Government Area of the state.

According to the Executive Chairman of the agency, Akin Fagbemi, the accident which involved a Toyota Sienna and a trailer, occurred at about 10:30 p.m on Saturday.

He said, "Direction violation and reckless driving by the Toyota Sienna driver who took one way and collided with the on-coming trailer and thereby lost control, caused the accident.

"The accident led to the instant death of four persons while two injured persons were taken to Ladoke Akintola University of Technology (LAUTECH), Ogbomoso for prompt medical attention.

"The remains of the four casualties were taken to the morgue this morning. The rescue operation was collectively carried out by OYRTMA, FRSC and PMS at the zone," Fagbemi said.
