

Thugs kill Oyo PDP member

A member of the Oyo State Peoples Democratic Party (PDP), Mudashiru Baraka, was allegedly hacked to death by political thugs in Oyo town yesterday.

Baraka was allegedly killed in his father's house in the morning.

In a statement by the Publicity Secretary Akeem Olatunji, the party decried Baraka's killing.

The ruling party accused the All Progressives Congress (APC) of sponsoring the thugs that killed Baraka.

It appealed to the Commissioner of Police Adewale Williams to arrest those behind the killing.

Meanwhile, spokesman for the police Adewale Osifeso had yet to comment on the incident as of the time of filing in this report.
