

Hoodlums ambush troops in Delta, kill 4 soldiers

Gunmen have reportedly attacked army troops and killed four officers in Kwale, Ndokwa West Local Government Area of Delta State.

It was gathered that the incident which happened yesterday along Kwale road is currently creating tension in the area as army personnel are said to have invaded the community.

A community source was quoted as saying that the hoodlums ambushed the army personnel and killed three on the spot, while others who sustained injuries were rushed to the Federal Medical Centre.

He said, "The hoodlums ambushed the army personnel and killed three officers on the spot, others were rushed to Federal Medical Center, Asaba.

"One of the injured officers just died in FMC because he had lost much blood."