Ifeoma Ossai

50-year-old landlord, Monday Surulere Oladele, in Sango, Ado-Odo Ota Local Government Area of the state.

The Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) of the command, Abimbola Oyeyemi, who disclosed this to journalists in Abeokuta yesterday, said the suspect was arrested on Saturday.

Oyeyemi said, the suspect reportedly killed her landlord during a disagreement over the non-payment of her electricity bill.

According to him, the suspect was arrested following a report lodged at Sango Ota Police Divisional

Headquarters by the deceased brother, Olaleye Taiwo.

Oladele, Oyeyemi said told the police that, his late brother had a disagreement with his tenant over the payment of electricity bill.

"During the disagreement, the said tenant grabbed the manhood of the deceased and dragged him with it.

"Consequently, the landlord fell unconsciously on the ground and he was rushed to General Hospital, Ota where the doctor on duty confirmed him dead.

"Upon the report, the DPO Sango Ota Division, CSP Saleh Dahiru, quickly led his detectives to the scene where the suspect was promptly arrested and taken to custody for investigation."
