The family of a 22-year-old graduate of Moshood Abiola Polytechnic (MAPOLY), Abeokuta, Kabirat Sobola, who was stabbed to death in Ogun State has demanded for justice.

The deceased, a National Diploma holder was reportedly murdered in her room in Abeokuta, on Friday, February 4.

The deceased was reportedly stabbed to death after she was declared missing by her boyfriend.

Our correspondent learnt that the incident had thrown the entire family into mourning as police began investigation into the murder of the young lady.

A family member who simply identified herself as Mrs Sobola said, the family lamented that, the police was not doing enough to unravel the mystery behind the death of Kabirat.

She alleged that, the police did not investigate the case thoroughly, ignoring crucial parts of the case, adding that there was no reason to indict the deceased's boyfriend.

She accused the police of wrongfully arresting Kabirat's boyfriend to cover up the case.

She said, "Kabirat was found dead on her bed with a knife beside her; having a deep cut on her neck and her chest.

"Her phone was missing, the police have neglected these parts without mentioning them in their report.
