

The voice on the video related:

have rescued two out of the 12 kid-

Alleged Murder: Twin brothers, 3 other suspected cultists arrested in Osun

Ayobami Agboola,
OSOGBO

The Osun State Police Command has arrested twin brothers, Taiwo Adeleke and Kehinde Adeleke and three other persons suspected to be cultists, accused of killing one Abiodun Toyeeb Apalara in Esa-Oke, Obokun Local Government Area of the state.

Other suspects are Ibrahim Qudus, Ojo Ayobami and Ojo Oretu.

The arrested suspects were paraded by the Public Relations Officer of the Command, Yemisi Opalola yesterday.

Parading the suspects, Opalola said the suspects were arrested by the Special Anti-Cultism of the Police team.

She said, "On 27th of April, Police received a distress call that there was a fracas among some hoodlums suspected to be cultists in Esa-Oke which led to the death Abiodun Toyeeb Apalara.

"Investigation mechanisms revealed the deceased Apalara killed by some armed hoodlums suspected to be members of Black Axe confraternity also known as Aye confraternity, Apalara was also a member of Alora confraternity also known as Buccaneer confraternity."

Opalola urged residents of Osun State to always call on her or the Police Commissioner, if they have cases to report, adding that police can never be everywhere.