

Kwara: One burnt to death, 3 injured in lone accident

Stephen Olufemi Oni,
ILORIN

A lone accident at Wariko area along Lafiagi road in Edu Local Government Area of Kwara State has claimed the life of one person.

It was learnt that the victim was burnt to death, while three other persons were said to have sustained varying degrees of injury.

The state Sector Commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Frederick Ogidan, confirmed the incident in Ilorin, the state capital, yesterday.

Ogidan said the driver of the vehicle involved in the unfortunate incident, Mohammed Idris, 37, was burnt to ashes, adding that the accident was caused by over speeding.

He said the accident happened at about 10:30 am on Thursday, adding that the FRSC team arrived at the scene within five minutes of the incident, but could not rescue the driver.

He also said that the vehicle involved was a Toyota Premera brand used for commercial purpose, giving names of some other occupants in the vehicle as Usman, Bkatachi and Fati.

The Sector Commander, who advised motorists against over speeding, cautioned that they should always be careful while driving.