Okada rider found dead a week after going missing in Osun

Ayobami Agboola,
OSOGBO

An okada rider identified as Aina Ezekiel Oluwasegun, has been found dead after going missing last week.

The young man went missing on Friday, May 12, 2023, in Owode Ede, Ede North Local Council Development Area (LCDA), Osun State.

According to one of his colleagues, Oluwasegun was hired by a passenger on Friday evening to an unknown destination and never returned.

After days of searching, the lifeless body of Oluwasegun was found on Saturday, May 20, 2023, inside an uncompleted building located at Oke-Ayo area, Owode Ede.

Information gathered indicates that he was found with bruises and wound on his head.

The suspected killers also absconded with his motorbike which he has been using for his Okada business.

Confirming the incident, the Osun State Police Public Relations Officer, Yemisi Opalola said the decomposing body of Oluwasegun was discovered on Saturday and was evacuated by the police.

Opalola hinted that the police have commenced investigation to unravel the mystery behind the disappearance and death of the deceased.

"The decomposing body was discovered on Saturday and it was immediately evacuated by the police.

"We have commenced investigation to unravel the mystery behind the disappearance and death of the deceased," Opalola

"Oluwasegun went missing on May 12 and was not seen till his decomposing body was discovered inside an uncompleted building in Oke Ayo Area, Owode-Ede, by some residents who perceived foul smell.

"Efforts were made to look for him when he went missing by his colleagues, but none yielded any result until his corpse was discovered," she said.

Rainstorm destroys ove

Nasir Shuaibu,
BAUCHI

No fewer than 200 houses were destroyed by rainstorm in Misau Town, the headquarters of Misau Local Governments Area of Bauchi State.

Our Correspondent reports that the rainstorm happened on Sunday evening, when many women were busy preparing evening meals for their families.

One of the damaged houses