

Rivers Police Kills Suspected Cultist During Shoot-out, Recover Arms

Emmanuel Masha

3 mins ago

3 minute read

Operatives of the Rivers State Police Command have shot dead a suspected cultist during a shootout in Ndele Community in Emuoha Local Government Area in recent times.

The suspected cultist, Azundah Elechi, 28, according to the state's police spokesperson, Grace Iringe-Koko, SP, in a statement was a member of the Diobu.

The police spokesperson claimed that the said Elechi was among those that carried out an attack at Mgbola Village, Ndele Community in Emohua Local Government Area. Iringe-Koko said that on Wednesday, 31st May, 2023, the Dey-Gbam Cult Group invaded the community again to further unleash mayhem on

She said the suspect who hails from Omofo Community, Ndele Emuoha Local Government Area of Rivers State was killed in the early hours of Thursday. She said: "In a shootout between the cultists and the Police and the local vigilantes, Azunda Elechi 'M' was fatally injured with one pump action rifle recovered from him."

Meanwhile, the Commissioner of Police, CP Nwonyi Emeka Polycard, has called on parents and guardians to always monitor the activities of their children. Rivers State Police Command have shot dead a suspected cultist during a shootout in Ndele Community in Emuoha Local Government Area, where