

2 Ogun orders probe into student's killing

The Ogun State Government has condemned the killing of a 300-level student of the Tai Solarin University of Education

Ijagun.

In a statement on Sunday, the Ministry of Information and Strategy Permanent Secretary Waheed Adesina said the government is not happy about the dastardly act.

Adesina promised the management and students of the university that those behind the killing would not go unpunished.

He said the police had been instructed to invite all those concerned, including the Baale of Imaweje Village, the institution's host community where the incident happened, to unravel the cause of the death.

The government said: "No one has the right to take the law into their own hands.

"Every action necessary would be taken to punish all those involved.

"The government appealed to the students of the institution to remain peaceful and law-abiding, while waiting for the outcome of the police investigation.

"Such an incident will not be allowed to happen again anywhere in the state."

eed Executive/

the Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be elected.

According to him, the election of Presiding Officers is purely an internal affair that concerns only members of the National Assembly, stressing that the lawmakers-elect should be allowed to decide who among them would occupy the positions in order to avoid repetition of past mistakes.

P chief as tribunal

The chairman, thereafter, adjourned sitting till June 13.

However, while the tribunal sitting was ongoing, the thugs assaulted Showunmi.

The thugs, who were in large numbers, had come to support a particular political party.
