

Oyo: Notorious thug shot dead, 4 arrested

Sola Adeyemo,
IBADAN

2

A suspected notorious thug, Musliudeen Mudasiru Gbolagade (aka MC), was yesterday shot dead in the Iseyin area of Oke Ogun, Oyo State, by a combined team of soldiers, police, Amotekun Corps and Department of State Services (DSS) officers.

Musiliudeen's brother and three other accomplices were arrested by the security personnel.

Musiliudeen was dreaded by the people of Isalu, where he reigned as a leading thug, collecting rent from shop owners, landlords and business owners.

According to New Telegraph's investigation, MC was fingered in many robberies and gun duels in the Isalu area, leading many to believe that he had a hand in kidnapping cases happening in the community.

He was reported to have shot at one of the security men before being gunned down.

As of press time, his corpse was at the Oketape-mo police station for onward movement to Ibadan.