

Pregnant woman, 4 others die in Niger auto crash

Daniel Atori,
MINNA

A Pregnant woman, an operator of a popular drinking bar in Minna and three other women were on Saturday killed in a road accident on the Minna Paiko road in Paikoro Local Government Area of Niger State.

New Telegraph learnt that the accident happened when a navy blue Toyota Carina-E car and a white Pontiac Vibe had a head-on collision few kilometers away from Minna.

An eyewitness report has it that, the five women died on the spot while others who sustained various degrees of injury were rushed to the IBB Specialist Hospital, Minna for medical attention.

Our Correspondent gathered that, bar operator popularly known as Lady Tee who has Shops both at the IBB Pen House (NUJ Secretariat) and the Railway station near Mobil was on her way to Kaduna State to attend one of her friend's wedding.

It was reliably gathered that, Lady Tee was the only one who died in their vehicle (Pontiac Vibe) while the four others died in the

