

Security Agencies Neutralise 21 Suspected Bandits in Kebbi – Official

Bukola

9 hours ago

2 minute read

At least 21 suspected bandits have been killed by security agencies in collaboration with vigilante and locals in Danko official of the state has said. Speaking in a telephone interview, the Council Chairman, Alhaji Hussani Aliyu-Bena disc Mariga Local Government Area of Niger State, where the bandits get access to Kebbi State.

According to him, the incident started on Monday through Tuesday up to Wednesday, adding that the bandits came thr credible intelligence kept the security agencies, vigilance group and locals on alert which led to a successful ambush.

He said the locals in collaboration with vigilante killed 17 suspected bandits, recovered arms, ammunitions and motor added that the bandits also moved to Tanga- ran village and abducted nine farmers working on their farmlands, but all security agencies, vigilante and locals at a village called Lugga under Ayu District.

The chairman said a careful watch on the movement of the bandits also resulted in another encounter at Bakin Gulbi v recovered weapons and rescued three kidnapped persons, assuring that the bandits' movement was being monitored fo the bandits also killed some persons in Marafan Mai Inuwa village under Kanya District and abducted some people, b killing some of the bandits.

He noted that in line with the directives of the Governor: “We have visited Kanya District, where all the displaced pers commiserate with the people and presented a message (token) from His Excellency, Kauran Gwandu.” While commen and locals, Aliyu-Bena appealed to people for more support and cooperation towards providing credible intelligence to