The residents of the Iba community, Ifelodun Local Government Area of Osun State were under tension after gunmen inside a bathroom.

It was gathered that the unfortunate incident happened on Tuesday around 10:00 pm in the Oke Akute area of the ancient town.

New Telegraph learned that the assailants suddenly appeared and shot Khadija, who was nursing a three-months-old child.

Subsequently, she was rushed to a private hospital in the Ire community for treatment by her relatives but died on Thursday.

The motives behind the killing are yet to be ascertained.

Speaking with our correspondent, a resident of the town, Sodiq Kehinde said the people of the ancient town are still in a state of shock.

Kehinde lamented that a similar incident occurred in the town five years ago, calling on security agencies to come to the aid of the residents.

When contacted, the Spokesperson of Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps, Osun State Command, Kehinde Adekunle said the investigation into the crime has commenced because the same occurrence happened five years ago in the town.
