

Abuja police arrest car owner for killing suspected thief

The Federal Capital Territory Police Command has arrested an Abuja-based man and charged him with homicide for allegedly killing a man who attempted opening his vehicle after he (the deceased) mistook the suspect's car for that of his boss.

Preliminary investigation by the police revealed that the suspect and the complainant who sent Benjamin (the deceased) to pick up his charger from his car, actually has a similar type of Toyota Camry car, the same colour and they were packed close to each other.

The FCT Commissioner of Police, Haruna Garba, disclosed yesterday during a press briefing while parading suspects arrested for various offences.

Garba said, "On September 23, 2023, at about 9:15 pm, one Mohammed Rabi'u 'm' of Nyanya reported at Karmo Division that on the same date at about 9:05 pm, he sent his boy, one Benjamin to pick a phone charger for him from his car, when one Shaibu Ibrahim attacked the said Benjamin and stabbed him severally on the body."

trafficker's, fined N24m

engaged in trafficking in persons contrary to Section 13(4) c TIPPEA, 2015

The convict was also accused of organising foreign travels which promote prostitution contrary to Section 18 of TIPPEA, 2015 for twelve victims currently in Belgium.

She however pleaded not guilty to all the counts, but the prosecution in proof of the counts called a total of 3 witnesses including a Belgian police officer, Mr. Jimmy Wellem Hendrik who flew in from Brussels on May 31 to testify.